PatTEDmakers TALK: 6pm - Monday 26th October 2020

Freedom of The City (during COVID-19) and Genealogy

In the third edition in our exclusive webinar series, we will receive an illuminating talk on the Freedom of The City during COVID-19 from the Clerk of the Chamberlain's Court; our dear friend Murray Craig. We will also enjoy an insightful talk on Genealogy from Court Assistant Liveryman Steve Huxham. Steve will be sharing how he got into Genealogy and will gift us his invaluable advice for anyone looking to undertake their own research including how one starts and tips on how to become a Ancestry Super-Slueth!

Clerk of the Chamberlain's Court, Murray Craig

Appointed Clerk of the Chamberlain's Court in 1997 and City of London Guide in 2004, its fair to say that Murray knows a thing or two about our amazing City. In addition to admitting people to the Freedom of the City, Murray conducts historical research into past ceremonies and assists people tracing their ancestors who were Freemen.

Court Assistant Liveryman Steve Huxham

Steve joined the Pattenmakers as a Freeman in 2008 and became a Liveryman in 2011. He joined the Court in 2016 as Head of Military Affiliations Sub-Committee. Steve has undertaken energetic research into historic Pattenmakers and is co-author of Out Of The Mud.
