

UPDATE ANNUAL CAROL SERVICE UPDATE

Thursday, 10th December at 6.00pm

Planning is now well advanced for the Pattenmakers' Annual Carol Service which, assuming (dangerous!) the pre second lockdown conditions apply, will take place as follows:

- The hope is that 30 participants will be allowed, we will be joined by the Basketmakers
- It will be attended by Past Master Sheriff Christopher Hayward
- The Service will last some 45 minutes with five readings
- The whole event will be virtual – on YouTube
- There will be a “breakout room” immediately following the Service by Zoom when we can all join in and see the Church attendees – led by the Master Pattenmaker munching Mince Pies and quaffing Mulled Wine – all, of course, socially distanced!
- Senior Past Master Helen Auty and Past “Mistress” Jenny Dicken will spearhead a Christmas decoration party the day before

UPDATE

There will be a ballot held for the few remaining vacant places in the Church on the day. Please send an email to the Clerk who will then enter your name into the ballot. The closing time will be midnight Sunday, 6th December and the “winners” will be notified on Monday, 7th December.

Details of the link(s) will be promulgated in due course.
