

Quiz 61

Advertising Slogans

Following the reaction to the Double Diamond question in the Diamond edition, yes it did, indeed, work wonders! Here are 25 famous slogans which need completing – Apologies to the Young Pattenmakers and our overseas members who won't have a clue what we are on about!

So here is my top 25 – I really don't know how they got away with some of them 😊

1. Who was my flexible friend?
2. What went "plop, plop, fizz, fizz"?
3. What was "soft, strong and very long"?
4. Aaaah! ?
5. What did the Train take?
6. What wouldn't your mother like?
7. What did the man from Del Monte say?
8. What did Esso put in your tank?
9. What kept England cool for 192 years?
10. What was "tasty, tasty, very, very, tasty, they're very tasty!"?
11. What helped you work rest and play?
12. What melted in your mouth and not in your hands?
13. What did he like so much he bought the company?
14. What was the person selling with the words "Hello boys"
15. What had a Hazelnut in every bite? (clue – not squirrel poo)
16. What did 8 out of 10 cat owners say their cat preferred?
17. What wasn't for girls?
18. What did they drink in the Congo?
19. What had "now't taken out"?
20. What did nicely?
21. What were the United Colours of?
22. What was "pure gold"
23. What was only the best for the Captain's table?
24. What was as "sweet as the moment when the pod went pop"?
25. What was the "taste of paradise"?

Well, that trip down memory lane made me laugh, anyway!