

Congratulations to Freeman Dr Ingrida Kerusauskaite, who married Mr Daniel Palmer at Birzai Castle, Lithuania on the 12th August 2021

Liveryman Raymond Lewis MSM who celebrates his 50th Wedding Anniversary writes that:

The Lithuanians have some lovely customs going back for generations. One such custom is that friends & family add a short poem on their wedding day card which is given to the bride on her wedding day. I have penned a suitable poem and translation below:

*Būkit laimingi vienam pasauly,
Ant vieno kelio, po viena saule
Meilę branginkit,
laimę apginkit.
Žiedais žydėkit, žiedus auginkit.
Būkit laimingi !!!*

Be happy for one world,
On one road, one sun at a time...
Cherish love,
defend happiness.
Bloom like flowers,
grow flowers.
Be happy !!!

The Bride carries the Bouquet and the Groom carries the handbag

The Bride and Groom celebrate with the cutting of the Cake