An historic Wren Guild church in the heart of the City of London

WELCOME TO OUR CHURCH

St Margaret Pattens has been a place of worship and a resource for the community since 1067. After the Great Fire in 1666, Sir Christopher Wren designed the current building, which remains largely unaltered to this day.

The Livery Companies of the Basketmakers and Pattenmakers established and retain their homes here. And we continue to serve all those who have their businesses, livelihoods and homes in this most vibrant part of the City.

Insurers, baristas and bankers may have replaced basketmakers, pattenmakers, bakers and warehousemen but the human needs of reflection, beauty, hope and love continue unchanged.

We invite you to share in our work and life, and especially to consider joining the Friends of St Margaret Pattens.

The Revd Andrew Keep Vicar

WHY BECOME A FRIEND?

Our aim is to support this distinguished ancient building for future generations, to keep the Church open and continue to make it accessible for everyone today.

As a registered Charity with a Board of Trustees, the Friends do this by providing grants for the ongoing life, fabric and contents of the Church

As a Friend you will be contributing to the Church's future, find out what's being done through our Newsletter and can join in special events for the Friends.

Experience the ambience of the Church building itself and be part of our community

Enjoy meeting other Friends and supporters at interesting events
