Micky Yule

Former Staff Sergeant Royal Engineers, Para Olympian & DMRC Benevolent Fund Ambassador

On 1st July 2010 Staff Sergeant Micky Yule, Search Advisor for The Royal Engineers, stepped on an IED. Micky immediately lost his left leg and shattered his right leg completely.

Immediately evacuated back to Camp Bastion, the right leg was removed before being repatriated to The Queen Elizabeth Hospital in Birmingham. Micky was in a coma for a week before being brought back to consciousness to face life as a double amputee with a broken pelvis among other various injuries.

The coming weeks were spent in various operations, In total Micky has endured over 45 operations to date to get him back to health before transferring to Headley Court to start the long rehabilitation process.
