

Appendix 2 Admission Fines and Quarterage

Steps in the Process		Quarterage	Fine	Comment
Freedom of the City of London			£170	Fee (currently £170) payable to the 'Chamberlains Court'
Admission as Freeman of the Company		£198	£280 by redemption £80 by Patrimony	Quarterage increases to £396 after 2 years for Freemen over 39 years of age by Patrimony. £80 not £95 as £15 was previously for the Freemans Guide now discontinued * includes the book 'Out of the mud'.
Freeman Living Abroad 50% of current rate		£99	£280 by redemption £80 by Patrimony	Quarterage increases to £198 after 2 years for Freemen over 39 years of age. Fine: payable unless already paid before member moved abroad.
Process for younger members	Award Winner Freeman of the Company (21 to 39 years)	FOC	FOC	Award winners invited to attend one Mansion House Dinner & one other dinner FOC.
	Admission as Freeman of the Company (18 to 39 years)	£122	£80	Quarterage to increase to £198 at age 39 for 2 years and then £396.
	Admission as Liveryman (18 to 39 years)	£122	£250	Quarterage to increase to £396 at age 39.
Admission as Liveryman of the Company		£396	£550	Fine based upon: the Silver Livery Medal and fine to cover administration, including the medal box, a blue ribbon, the history book, a tie/scarf, the certificate, a map of livery companies
Liveryman Living Abroad 50% of current rate		£198	£550	Fine: payable unless already paid before member moved abroad. Change of status subject to Membership committee approval.
Admission to the Court		£396	£200	Fine: Includes provision of the cost of the gilding of the Silver Livery Medal. (White ribbon is free.)
Appointment as Warden		£396	£125
Appointment as Master		£396	£500	See Master's duties section
Past Master		£396	£0	Maroon Ribbon (Provided Free)